4　次の英文は、健太（Kenta）がホームステイをしたときにお世話になったスミス夫妻（Mr. and Mrs. Smith）に、最近のできごとを伝えるために書いた手紙です。これを読んで、あとの問いに答えなさい。

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Smith,

How are you?　I'm doing well.

Today, I will tell you about one day in summer.

I *climbed a *mountain with my father last week.　We climbed *Mt. Kongo.　It is a mountain in Osaka.　It was a cloudy day, but it was hot.　When we were *halfway up, I was tired.　I wanted to stop and said to my father, ①"I don't want to walk *anymore." But my father said, "Look!　You can see the *top now.　Don't *give up."　We *met many people on the way, and they said, "*Keep going.　The top is near."　We *reached the top at twelve.　We were very hungry then.　We ate sandwiches, and they were delicious.

When we were drinking coffee after lunch, we met an old man.　He said, "I climb this mountain every day.　I live near here."　②I was very surprised and asked, "Why do you climb it every day?"　He said, "Because I like the *view from here.　I can see the city and the mountains around here."　He also said, "When I was *young, I had a hard time in my job.　But I could relax when I climbed this mountain and enjoyed the *fresh *air.　I also enjoyed eating soba here.　This mountain helps me a lot."　I listened to ③his story and learned a lot.

I also talked with a woman from Nara there.　She asked, "Is this your first time here?"　I said, "Yes."　She *smiled and said, "This is a good mountain for *beginners.　I came here *alone today, but I often come here with my children, too."　She talked about some good *hiking spots in Osaka and Nara.

I enjoyed seeing the great view and talking with people on that day.　It is a nice *memory for me.

I want to climb a mountain with you when I visit you next.

Bye,

Kenta
